

Regarding the "SDGs Sustainability-Linked Loan" Contract with Higashi-Nippon Bank, Ltd.

Renewable Japan Co., Ltd. (Headquarters: Minato-ku, Tokyo; President: Katsuhito Manabe; hereafter referred to as "Renewable Japan") has signed an "SDGs Sustainability-Linked Loan" agreement with Higashi-Nippon Bank, Ltd. (President: Kazuhiro Sukegawa; hereafter referred to as "Higashi-Nippon Bank").

Renewable Japan is engaged in the development and operation of renewable energy power plants, primarily solar. The funds raised through this loan will be allocated to business expenses for domestic solar power plants. In addition, the loan framework's compliance with various principles and guidelines, both domestic and international, has been evaluated by Rating and Investment Information, Inc. (R&I).

This project marks the first "SDGs Sustainability-Linked Loan" formulated by Higashi-Nippon Bank.

Renewable Japan will continue to contribute to realizing a sustainable society by expanding our renewable energy business and working to reduce CO2 emissions.

This loan product links loan terms, including interest rates, to the achievement status of sustainability performance targets (SPTs) set under the SDGs/ESG strategy. It aims to support the realization of sustainable local communities and to continuously support companies' efforts to achieve the SDGs.
